Election of ten members of the Committee for the United Nations Population Award

Note by the Secretary-General

1. The Committee for the United Nations Population Award is composed of 10 members elected from among States Members of the United Nations with due regard to equitable geographical representation and the need to include those Member States that have made contributions for the Award.

2. Pursuant to article 4 of the regulations governing the Award, contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 36/201 of 17 December 1981, the Economic and Social Council is to elect, at its resumed organizational session for 2003, the 10 members of the Committee for the United Nations Population Award for a three-year term beginning on 1 January 2004.

3. At its resumed second regular session of 1982, the Council agreed on the distribution of seats on the Committee (see E/1982/SR.54 and 58). In accordance with that agreement, in 2003, the 10 members are to be elected according to the following pattern:

(a) Three members from African States;

(b) Two members from Asian States;

(c) One member from Eastern European States;

(d) Three members from Latin American and Caribbean States;

(e) One member from Western European and other States.

4. The current membership of the Committee is given in the annex below.
